ORDER SETTING TRIAL DATE AND
TOLLING TIME UNDER THE SPEEDY TRIAL ACT

On February 8, 2007, Defendant Francisco Orozco, through counsel Barry Edwards, Esq., moved to continue the trial date and to extend the pre-trial motions deadline, on the ground that investigation was necessary to evaluate and prepare appropriate pretrial motions. The United States, through Assistant U.S. Attorney Loretta Sheehan, had no objection to a continuance.

The Court grants the motion to continue, and schedules a new trial date for May 1, 2007. The Court further tolls the time from March 20, 2007 to and including May 1, 2007, finding that the ends of justice in continuing the trial outweigh the defendant's and public's interest in a speedy trial, in that a continuance of trial is necessary to insure continuity of counsel and for defense counsel adequately to prepare for trial, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.

The trial is continued to May 1, 2007. Motions must be filed by March 20, 2007. Responses are due by April 3, 2007. Final pretrial before the magistrate judge is scheduled for April 2, 2007 at 10:00 a.m. before the Honorable Kevin S. Chang. Final pretrial before the Court is scheduled for April 16, 2007 at 8:30 a.m.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: March 15, 2007, at Honolulu, Hawaii.
